

The Augustinian Recollects will mobilize for the next World Youth Day which will be held this coming August in Madrid, Spain, more than half a thousand youth coming from the different groups that belong to the RAY (Recollect Augustinian Youth/Spanish JAR). The more than 500 young men and women will come from the 14 countries where the Recollects are present. The youth will participate also in an encounter prepared by the Order, an encounter which was timed to coincide with some activities of the WYD.

This encounter of the youth coming from 14 countries is called WYDRAY, a term that joins the official name of "World Youth Day" and the Order's, "Recollect Augustinian Youth" (Spanish, JMJAR). Half a thousand participants with 14 nationalities are expected to attend. The seat of the RAY will be at Colegio Agustiniiano de Madrid. The prior general and provincial priors, some Recollect bishops and religious with their lay affiliates, coming from different places, are also expected to be present.

Here are some of the most important activities: two encounters in the parishes of Santa Rita and Santa Monica in Madrid, a visit to two of the OAR monasteries located in the capital of Spain, and the catechetical instructions to be given by some of the 19 Augustinian Recollect bishops.
